United Fund Drive Picks Up Momentum

School Group Confident Of Passing Goal

92 Industrial
Firms Have Sights
On $380,000 Mark

The Schools Division drive in the 9157 Bucks County United Community Fund drive is moving at full speed toward its $10,000 goal in Lower Bucks County, Division Chairman Warren E. Ringler said today.

Mr. Ringler predicted his committee will exceed its quota, completing the solicitation of teachers, school administrators and employees before October 15.

"We have contacted all private and public schools, and they are all giving their full cooperation," Mr. Ringler said. "In almost all schools, the personnel will be able to contribute through payroll deductions. We anticipate a great deal of success."

In the Industrial Division, meanwhile, Chairman Otto Grupp, 3rd, said his 25 solicitation teams have contacted all 92 industries and large businesses in Lower Bucks, in a drive for $380,000.

Good Evening!

Magie did it.

Quite a show the old pro produced, too. But watch those bombers pull the trigger on Newcombe today.

Something of a show the candidates are stirring up, too.

Nixon in Philadelphia accuses Stevenson of destroying American standing in the world by his "shotgun" attacks on Ike's peace policies, and Adlai accuses Eisenhower of gross misstatements about the social security program.

Well, like they always say, this is the accusing season. Thank heavens only a month to go.

Hey, in a month we'll be sliding well into November. Then Thanksgiving, then Christmas. Amazing, how the world moves along.

A day of sprinkles, apparently.

We can't have everything, apparently, and yesterday's skies made the foliage a thing of loveliness to behold.

Now what we need is a solid week of perfect autumn skies beginning Saturday, October 13, when the big Bristol's 275th celebration starts.

It's going to be quite a party—all the way.

"Good morning, Doctor," said the first psychologist as he arrived at the hospital.

"Good morning, Doctor," echoed the second—then under his breath to himself, "I wonder what he meant by that!"

You can always tell an eight-year-old. But you usually have to tell him twice.

Watch your driving.

Time Proves Mother Right

NEW YORK — UP — Eight years ago Mrs. Geraldine Vetter received a three-year jail sentence for holding her son's hand over a kitchen flame because he stole cigarettes from her purse.

Her attorney pleaded at her trial she was trying to prevent her son from becoming a criminal.

Last night her son, Philip Vetter, Jr., now 16, was arrested on charges of stealing an automobile and attempted felonious assault.

Gov. Leader Cautious On Darcy Queries

Tells Reporters
Very Little About
Commuting Sentence

HARRISBURG — UP — Gov. George M. Leader today parried questions about the granting of clemency to three convicted Philadelphia slayers with the comment that "the Pardons Board has spoken."

The governor was asked specifically at his news conference his personal opinions in the controversial case involving David Darcy, 30; Harry Zeitz, 25, and Harold Foster, 30.

The governor, acting on recommendation of the state Pardons Board, commuted their death sentences to life imprisonment. They had been scheduled to die in the electric chair last Monday for the killing of a bystander in a Feasterville tavern holdup in Bucks County in 1947.

Duff Assaults Action

U. S. Sen. James H. Duff charged recently that the governor's action was a "horrible miscarriage of justice" and intimated a "shadowy and sinister influence" was behind the clemency.

"I can think of a lot of things to say but I won't risk being misinterpreted by saying them," the governor said. "I have a lot of things to say on the subject, but

Demos Plan Picnic, Rally

A picnic and rally of Upper Southampton Democrats gets underway at 2 p.m. Sunday on the lawn of Mrs. Charles Ermentrout, Second Street pike, Southampton.

The event, sponsored by the township's Democratic organization, will feature addresses by John P. Fullam, candidate for Congress; George B. Ermentrout and Bernard T. O'Neill, candidates for the General Assembly, District One.

Purpose of the picnic is to introduce candidates to the local people and also give the Upper Southampton Democrats a chance to get together.

Hot dogs and refreshments will be served free, and children are expected to play games.

George MacKenzie, president of the club, urged all residents of Upper Southampton and neighboring townships to attend.

Levittown Residential Plans Mapped

Area Captains
For Intense Week
Of Solicitation

Area captains in the Levittown residential drive for the Bucks County United Community Fund were named and plans made for an intensive week of solicitation last night at a meeting conducted by Mrs. W. David Price, 83 Kingwood lane, Levittown residential chairman.

Mrs. Price said the house-to-house drive will be conducted October 15 to 22. She commended her volunteer workers for their response to her call, and said she is confident the Levittown drive will be a success.

The group met at the home of Mrs. Clyde F. Brown, 46 Silver Birch lane, with Mrs. James S. Douglass, residential division chairman for the United Fund in Lower Bucks County. Also attending were Mrs. James W. Caulkett, Mrs. Thomas H. Smith, Mrs. Dennis McDonald, Mrs. Herbert Epstein and Mrs. John W. Zauner, all of Levittown.

Display at Pomeroy's

Marking October 15 to 22 as United Fund week in Levittown, Mrs. Price said, will be a display at Pomeroy's department store, in the shopping center, depicting the 17 health, welfare and public service agencies of Bucks County supported by the fund.

Mrs. Price announced the appointment of three co-chairmen, each to supervise four sections of Levittown. They are:

Mrs. John Trakimas, 20 Deepgreen lane; captains, Kenwood.

Church Trustees Charge Twp. Officials 'Unfair'

Trustees of the Davisville Baptist Church have charged Upper Southampton Township officials with being unfair and discriminating in turning down their request for a sign.

Church leaders submitted a request for a scripture sign to be posted on Street road, but were not granted permission by the township board of adjustment.

In return church officials submitted a letter containing the charges to the township board. The letter said, in part, that church trustees were given to understand that permission to erect the sign was a "matter of sign which would blight the community."

However, Carl Haeussler, speaking for the board of adjustment, said today the reasons why the request was turned down have been forwarded to the church and are on file for the public. He refused comment on the discrimination charge.

The Rev. Alex B. Morrison, pastor of the church, said today the matter was in the hands of the trustees.

Donald DelManzo, township supervisor, explained that the sign was a violation of zoning and that the church was so notified.

"It's way too big," said Mr. DelManzo, adding that it was about the size of a "road-side billboard." He said it was to be about 12 by 24 feet.

Trevose Firemen Set Turkey Dinner

Trevose Fire Company has initiated plans for the annual fall turkey dinner to be held Nov. 4 at the Trevose Fire House, Street road.

Fire officials urge residents to attend the affair, and help raise funds for the volunteer fire-fighters.

Actress' Father Settles Dispute

The father of movie actress, Gene Tierney, and a Fairless Hills lumber dealer, came to an amicable agreement over their differences last night after two days of hurling charges and countercharges back and forth at each other.

Howard Sherwood Tierney, 62, of "Wee-Farm," Newtown R.D.2, agreed to drop perjury charges against Willard P. Graeber, 218 Lincoln highway, Fairless Hills, co-owner of the Graeber Lumber company, who in return will drop a charge of passing a worthless check he had lodged against Tierney.

Started Tuesday

Yesterday afternoon Tierney appeared at the office of JP Andrew H. Dillman, 207 Penn street, Newtown, and signed a complaint against Graeber on a charge of perjury resulting from a hearing the night before.

The round of firing legal shots began at a hearing before JP Earl B. Dougherty, of Edgely, Tuesday evening, following a dispute over a load of lumber delivered to Tierney's home. Tierney claimed that during delivery of a shipment of lumber, one of Graeber's truck drivers accidentally ran over one of Tierney's ladders and Graeber failed to deliver another shipment he had promised him last July. Tierney stopped payment on a check of $182.90 because Graeber didn't want to deal with him on settling the damages, but instead on turning the matter over to his insurance company.

Tierney said he didn't consider

School Staff Has Meeting With Parents

Lower Southampton
Schedules Seven
Talks With Mothers

The first of seven scheduled meetings between mothers and teachers of the Lower Southampton Elementary school was held yesterday. The next session will be Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The get-togethers, sponsored by the Room Mothers association of the PTA, is intended to acquaint mothers with each other and the teachers.

Yesterday's meeting was for mothers of first grade pupils. Next week's will bring mothers of second grade students to the elementary school.

Mothers of third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grade pupils will attend on successive Wednesdays, with the final session November 21. That day, mothers of students in Mrs. Kulp's special class will meet.

The sessions are in the school's all-purpose room. Lower Southampton Elementary school is on Bridgetown pike, northeast of Feasterville.

Davisville Mart Opens

A huge supermarket came to the Southampton area today and marked the start of what is expected to be a Davisville Shopping Center.

The Davisville Center Inc. Supermarket, at Davisville and Street roads, opened after much preparation at 9 a.m. today with elaborate ceremonies and ribbon cutting.

Hundreds of gifts are being given to women and children today, and carousel rides are featured for the youngsters.

The Davisville center, which is about a mile west of Southampton's middle point, Street road and Second Street pike, is expected to have up to five stores in the future.

It is not far from the proposed

Armed Thug Takes $6200 From Teller

An unidentified gunman held up a teller at the Shopping Center branch of the Morrisville bank at 9:16 this morning and escaped with a reported $6,200.

According to Herman L. Margerum, bank president, the robber pointed a gun at teller Laura Jendricks and told her to fill up a bag with money. Only three persons were in the bank at the time, but an adequate description of the thief was obtained.

He made his getaway in a car from the shopping center parking lot.

FBI Join In

The FBI and State Police were immediately called into the case.

A general alarm was sent out on the Lower Bucks County police radio network by the Bristol township police dispatcher.

The thief was described as an 18 to 20-year-old white man, wearing a yellow-brown suede jacket.

Two tellers and three patrons were in the bank when he entered. The bandit ordered the customers against a back wall, while holding his gun before Tellers Laura Jendricks and Robert Baker.

"This is a stick-up," he said. "I mean business."

While waving the gun he told the tellers he was nervous. The bandit took only the money in the till at the tellers' cage, ignoring the bank vault.

He ordered the five persons to get behind the screen front, lie on the floor and "stay there five minutes or I'll blow your brains out."

The bandit then left. Shortly afterward, one of the patrons, Richard F. Taylor, of 97 Friendly lane, Levittown, who operates a camera store in the Shopping Center, rushed out and saw a car drive away.

The other customers were Mrs. Clifford Welker, Morrisville, and her three year old daughter, Lynn Ann.

Morrisville police were joined by FBI agents, State Police of Fairless Hills sub-station and Lower Makefield township police.

Margerum said another teller,

Carl Wunderlick, was downstairs at the drive-in window during the hold-up and was not aware of it.

Margerum said the bank branch manager, Herman H. Bunting, was on vacation. He said the acting manager, Robert Beadle, was out getting the mail when the bandit entered.

Bank officials later this morning were still counting the money to make an accurate account of the loss. They estimated it at something less than $6200.

Baker lives, at 320 Holly drive, Levittown.

Mrs. Jendricks lives on S. Main street, Yardley.

Borowsky Reports From Brooklyn: Fords (Whitey Too) Came Out Early

By BEN BOROWSKY
Courier and Times Sports Editor

BROOKLYN, N.Y. — The 1957 Ford came out yesterday and so did Whitey—in the fourth inning.

New York relief pitching held the Dodgers to only one run from the fourth inning on, but the damage had been done and Brooklyn was off to a quick one game lead in the 1956 World Series.

"It was a laugher," Duke Snider said in the clubhouse after the game. By that he meant it was like any ordinary game during the season with not too much tension.

Battle of Dons
Brooklyn manager Walter Alston will use Big Don New-

Junior Gilliam

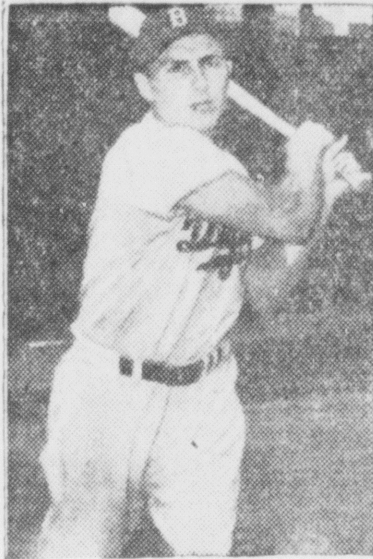

combe today against Casey Stengel's choice, Don Larsen. Newcombe finished with the best mark in baseball, 27-7. His earned run average was 3.06.

Larsen had a record of 11 victories against five defeats with an ERA of 3.27.

Newcombe has been tagged with the reputation that "he doesn't win the big ones." However, "Large Donald" may have broken that jinx last Sunday when he got credit for the victory in the Dodgers' pennant clincher.

In the 1955 series Larsen was charged with the defeat in one of the games as the Dodgers pounded him for five runs in four innings.

President Attends Game
It took the President and his

official party to make yesterday's game an exciting one. All of the 34,479 paying customers will long remember the President's visit to Ebbets Field.

The President arrived at the field at 12:30 and his four-car caravan came through the center field gates and circled the playing area. Mr. Eisenhower was met at home plate by Walter O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who introduced the Chief Executive to the players of both teams, baseball officials and the umpires.

The President's automobile, a special-made Lincoln with a plastic top, and the Cadillac

with running boards used by Secret Service agents came in for a lot of attention from the fans.

Summing Up
Summing up yesterday's game: The Dodgers looked good at the plate, in the field and on the mound. The Yankees? Well, Mantle belted a long one and Berra looked menacing up there.

Either the American League is the weaker circuit, as indicated by recent World Series and All-Star games, or Casey has a bunch of sleepers in his lineup that haven't "gotten up" yet.

Gil Hodges hit the mighty blow yesterday, a 3-run homer in the third inning to put the Dodgers in the lead, 5-2. Billy

Martin sent one into the left field seats to give the Yanks their third run.

Fielding Gem
The fielding gem of the day was supplied by Junior Gilliam, who robbed Moose Skowron of a base hit in the seventh inning.

The World Series scene shifts to Yankee Stadium tomorrow. Neither manager would commit himself to pitching choices for the third game until after today's contest.

It was the 50th World Series game for Brooklyn and the 25th played at Ebbets field. The Dodgers have a 12-13 record at home and have been able to win only six away games in World Series play.

Sal Maglie likes to pitch in Ebbets Field. With the Giants he posted an 11-3 mark at Brooklyn and this year with the Dodgers he won nine and lost two. Adding yesterday's victory Maglie is 21-5 at Ebbets.

Yardley Residents Want Liquor Store

Yardley residents are clamoring for a state liquor store in their community and are circulating a petition to speed the action. The stir is an outgrowth of five Yardley citizens' arrest Friday by members of the Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board and other law enforcement agents.

Walt Wilson, supervisor of enforcement, District One, said that the petition is to amend the law so that Yardley residents can buy liquor in New Jersey and drink it at home, or either to have a state store built in Yardley.

Mr. Wilson said that it's possible for the Legislature to amend the law, but it must be kept in mind that "revenue from liquor sales is the biggest source of income the state has for its general fund, and it's not likely that the law will be changed."

"We have taken cars before," he said, "we've taken about 1,500 cars during the last decade. We feel that we were fair in our enforcement of the law, trying the men under summary charges against the tax act, rather than the Liquor Code," the beverage official said.

The same applies to beer brought across state lines, Mr. Wilson said. The law states that the fine shall be $10 a container, or about $240 a case, he said.

A second conviction on the liquor or malt beverage charges requires mandatory jail sentences, he warned.

already begun in most of the firms, with corporate gift pledges obtained and canvassing of personnel underway, Mr. Grupp said. Directing solicitation in the industries in his division of under 100 employees are H. M. Caldwell and Charles Rittler.

"It looks as if we're in excellent shape," Mr. Grupp commented today. Progress reports will be submitted by the industrial teams at a luncheon Friday at the Keystone Hotel.

The Industrial Division is seeking to complete its drive by October 17, when the residential drive begins.

The total goal of the Bucks County United Fund Campaign is $603,000, of which $480,000 is the quota in Lower Bucks County's six divisions.

The United Fund supports 17 health, welfare and public service agencies in Bucks County, who face the greatest needs in their history.

Eight public school systems and two private schools are participating in Mr. Ringler's division drive. In the public schools, presidents of the teachers associations are directing the drives, with the cooperation of the district superintendents. Private school officials are assisting in a similar way.

Mr. Ringler is assistant principal of Charles H. Boehm Junior High School and president of the Pennsbury School Education Association, a group formed of teachers and administrators.

In the Pennsbury Schools system, two-thirds of the professional staff has pledged United Fund gifts under payroll deduction for a total donation of $3500, Mr. Ringler said. The donations are based on a day's pay each year, he said.

Other Pennsbury teachers and educators will be canvassed next week for cash pledges, the division chairman said. Meanwhile, the Pennsbury school bus drivers have responded almost 100 per cent.

Neshaminy is among the school districts providing payroll deductions for its employees this year, Mr. Ringler said, while the Bristol and Delmar districts have already had the system for past United Fund campaigns.

Each school district chairman has delegated solicitors in each of the school buildings of his district, Mr. Ringler said. The school chairman are:

Pennsbury, Mr. Ringler; Bristol borough, Irvin Brambley; Delmar, Guy Petrozello; Neshaminy, Robert Hassell; Morrisville, J. Wilbur Sauder.

Bensalem, John Whare; Centennial, Mrs. Ella Rhoads; Council Rock, Mrs. E. Mae Hartzel; George School, Richard E. McEely; Principal, Woods Schools George K. Bennett, secretary and treasurer.

Optimists Set Halloween Art Contest

Plans for the giant Halloween window painting contest, the first in Lower Southampton township, were set this week by the Feasterville Optimist Club for October 27.

Arrangements for the October 27 event have been made by contacting officials and initiating a team plan.

Students of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, of all Lower Southampton schools, will participate. About 17 or 18 teams will compete, said Jack LaBoid, publicity director.

Competition will be within the classes to pick teams. Each classroom is expected to enter a team.

Prizes will be given to the best team in each grade, Mr. LaBoid explained. Judges will be chosen from without the Optimist Club, and will be competent, he said.

Merchants are now being contacted and are expected to offer their windows for the contest.

The Optimist Club also announced that Chief Leonard Hesch, of the Feasterville Fire Company, will speak at the October 16 meeting of the club, in the Buck Hotel, Feasterville.

The club has also scheduled a card party for November 2, in the Feasterville Fire Hall.

Workshop Set At Bensalem

A teacher's workshop will be held tomorrow at Bensalem High School for the purpose of airing general problems and discussing future projects.

The day has been set aside on the school calendar as a holiday. It is an opportunity for school officials and faculty to get together and iron out any problems that may have arisen since the beginning of the school.

High school principal Russell Struble will address the teachers at the outset of the meeting in the school cafeteria at 8:30 a.m.

Some of the problems to be discussed include plans for Business Education day which takes place Oct. 9. This day is set aside for the purpose of educators and industry to become better acquainted with each other's problems.

Other topics include report cards, plans, fire drills, grade level problems, gunning and fishing rulings, rehearsal plans for fairs and home room assignments.

The meeting will continue until 3 p.m.

Curtin Blasts Handling Of Darcy Case

Willard S. Curtin, Morrisville, Republican candidate for Congress, yesterday attacked the handling of the David Darcy case, and charged Gov. George M. Leader with reversing the decision of the courts after examining evidence for only two hours.

He said the commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment for Darcy and his companion killers was "an outrage against the people and the courts of Pennsylvania."

Curtin said that "someone had spent a tremendous amount of money on Darcy's behalf," but added he didn't know who.

His attack followed one made yesterday by Bucks Republican chairman Fred Ziegler.

Darcy won countless stays of execution following his conviction of killing William Kelly, of Trevoze, in the Feasterville tavern holdup of December 1947.

The seven nations which lead in air transport are the United States, Great Britain, France, Holland, Canada, India, and Mexico.

Regular Site For Township Heads

Lower Southampton Township Supervisors will have their monthly session in the municipal building, Bridgetown pike and Elmwood avenue, and not at a new location as previously planned.

The meeting begins at 8 p.m. Monday, Township Manager Paul Flynn, announced.

Township officials are still studying plans for moving the public meetings to a new location because of changes in the municipal building.

A township manager's office was constructed in the municipal building, cutting the size of the public meeting room in half.

Lodge 87 To Note 113th Anniversary

Hopkins Lodge 87, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will celebrate its 113th Anniversary Oct. 20 with a banquet at St. James Episcopal Church parish house.

Banquet arrangements are being made by a committee headed by J. R. Wyke, who urged all lodge members to participate.

Co-chairman is William Hess, with committee members Maurice Wildman, Herbert Smoyer, Harry Harris and John Antolich.

Tierney Case Is Settled Amicably

Graeber had fulfilled the terms of his agreement on delivery.

On a warrant sworn out by Graeber before JP Dougherty, Tierney was held on $500 bail for action by the Bucks County Grand Jury.

Unable to raise the bail immediately, Tierney was committed to the Bristol Borough jail where he remained until 2 a.m. yesterday morning. At that time his wife, Helen, posted money for his bail.

At the hearing last night Tierney denounced the charge against him as "phony." He continued, "No one can throw tarnish and mud at me, and get away scot free. No one in the world can hold me for passing a worthless check."

No Mattresses In Jail

During the course of the hearing Tierney and Graeber settled their differences, with Graeber agreeing to accept a check for $130 with the difference compensating for the damaged ladder and wages of a plumber idled by the delay in delivery of material.

Party Games And Prizes Are Slated

A Halloween square dance and masquerade party, sponsored by Jewish Congregation Temple Zion, Southampton, will come to the Bryn Gwelled Community Center, Meadow and Stump Bridge roads, Southampton, at 9 p.m., Oct. 20.

All persons of the Southampton-Feasterville area and surrounding communities are invited, according to Mrs. Warren Kitter, publicity chairman.

Scores of door prizes will be given, and an extensive list of party games has been drawn. Mrs. Kitter urged residents to make reservations now by contacting Sol Block, 3310 Lilac lane, Penn Valley Terrace.

Regus' Friday night services for the new reform congregation, Temple Zion, are conducted by Rabbi James Rudin at the Southampton Friends Meeting House, Gravel Hill and Street roads, Southampton, at 8:30.

Tomorrow night's sermon will be "Why B A Jew?" Oneag Sabbath, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gershan of Normandy, will follow.

Obituary

Rev. Prouse Dies At 74

The Rev. Clarence M. Prouse, retired minister of the Philadelphia Methodist Conference, died yesterday at his home in Southampton. He was 74.

The Rev. Prouse in his 25 years of active ministry served churches at Chalfont from 1924 to 1932 and Jarrettsville from 1932 to 1949. Since retiring he has been an active member of the Somerset Methodist church, in Somerset.

He was for 35 years affiliated with the Brown Preparatory school, Philadelphia. He retired as vice principal in 1932.

Surviving are his daughters, Mrs. Doris P. Prouse, Southampton, and Mrs. William G. Laing, Southampton; one brother, the Rev. Willard Prouse, Duncannon; and two sisters, Mrs. Herbert Willis, Morton, Pa., and Mrs. Wilber E. Emery, Lambertville, Mich.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, at the William R. Grant Funeral Home, Southampton.

Interment will be at Christiana, Del., with the Rev. Conard, of the Somerset Methodist church, officiating.

Friends may call at the funeral home tomorrow evening from 7

Services will be held Saturday at 1 p.m., from the William W. Dunn Funeral Home, 378 South Bellevue avenue, Langhorne, with the Rev. John A. Harvey, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Interment will be made in White Chapel Gardens, Feasterville.

Friends may call Friday 7 to 9 p.m.

Vandals Damage Building Planned For Church Rectory

Vandals broke into what will be the rectory of Bucks County's newest Catholic church, last night and created considerable damage to the interior.

The Rev. Paul J. Cahill, newly appointed pastor of St. Joseph the Worker church, Fallsington, reported this morning that it is his belief that a boy or boys created the damage as a prank.

The new church becomes a reality this Sunday with the saying of Mass in the Manor Elementary School, Thornridge section, Levittown, at 9:30 and 11:30 a.m.

The new parish will take in portions of St. Michael the Archangel parish, Levittown, and the parish of the Holy Trinity Church, Morrisville.

This new parish is the fifth established by Archbishop O'Hara in Lower Bucks County within the past five years.

Church officials have urged residents to attend; the first dinner is the first in the new hall, which opened about two weeks ago.

Tickets are available, church officials said, and children under five years will be admitted free.

Bing Crosby Says 'He's Long Gone'

LONDON —UP— Crooner Bing Crosby admits that he is "long gone" and that "I just don't sing as well as I used to," columnist Cyril Stapleton said in the London Daily Express today.

Stapleton said he received a long letter from the 51-year-old singer after writing an article about him in his column.

"I'm long gone," Crosby wrote, "but as you infer in your column, I'm not too depressed about it."

Desire For Freedom Shakes Iron Curtain

By JOSEPH L. PEARLMAN
INS Staff Writer

The brooding desire for freedom behind the iron curtain seems to be more acute — and dangerous to the Kremlin — than the outside world thinks.

The Poznan trials and events just prior to Marshal Tito's surprise hop to the Soviet Union have made this apparent. More than that, they indicate Moscow is aware it has to do something about it, and quickly.

President Eisenhower has been putting pressure on the Soviet leaders to prove they are really through with the trouble-generating Stalin days by giving their satellites freedom.

The President called for free and unfettered elections in Poland so that her people could choose their own social and economic system. And he urged free and fair trials for the defendants brought to book at Poznan for the bread-and-freedom riots of last June.

Challenge

It was a broad challenge to end Soviet domination of all the satellites, even though it was applied specifically to Poland.

Another strong voice was raised recently for freedom for the satellites. It belonged to India's Prime Minister Nehru, the "neutral" leader whose opinions are carefully weighed by Moscow, even if they are not always caressed.

Marshal Tito, who has successfully insisted on following his own road to Socialism, is expected to use his influence in spreading Belgrade's form of Communism behind the iron curtain.

Counter Reply

This would be in the nature of a counter-reply to what reportedly has been a new drive in Moscow against Tito's old policies.

According to a fairly solid version of a recent chapter in the strange Moscow-Belgrade story, former Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov got his faction in the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party to see the light as it has been flashed for many years by Molotov. That is, that the Titoist trend among the satellites can mean big trouble and should be reversed.

Warn Leaders

The warning was said to have been sent out to other Communist leaders abroad, at a time when Polish Communist officials were trying to figure out a way to get through the embarrassing Poznan trials.

That alone would have given Tito sufficient cause to jump aboard a plane with Nikita Khrushchev to continue their talks inside the Soviet Union. Tito feels he earned some rights during his Moscow visit last June, when there was so much talk about cooperation between the Soviet and Yugoslav Communist parties.

Familiarity Breeds End For Elephant

KAMPALA —(UP)— Uganda's famous wild elephant, called the Lord Mayor of Paraa, may have to be shot—all because he is working too hard to publicize Uganda's Murchison Fall's National Game Park.

Ever since a safari lodge was opened last year for tourists the Lord Mayor has been one of the chief attractions. He never wanders far from the camp and shows no fear of humans.

But now he is overdoing it. From peering into windows, he has taken to popping his head into tents. He ripped the sheet from the bed in which one visitor was lying and stole a woman tourist's frock from her bedside chair. He took another visitor's towel and rubbed himself down with it.

He has learned how to turn on taps in the camp grounds when he wants a drink or a bath, but he has not learned to turn off the water.

In an effort to break him of this trick, Park Warden John Mills cut off the water at the main. After turning the tap on and waiting vainly for his usual bath, the Lord Mayor ripped out the pipe.

Mills lost his patience. He advanced on the elephant shaking a stick at him.

This affront enraged the Lord Mayor. He chased Mills back into the house, smashed his chicken coops and demolished his garden.

"He really is an extraordinary elephant," said Mills. "Hitherto he has been a perfect gentleman, but we simply must stop him getting too familiar. The problem is how to do it without shooting him."

United Fund Drive Picks Up Momentum

School Group Confident Of Passing Goal

92 Industrial Firms Have Sights On $380,000 Mark

The Schools Division drive in the 9157 Bucks County United Community Fund drive is moving at full speed toward its $10,000 goal in Lower Bucks County, Division Chairman Warren E. Ringler said today.

Mr. Ringler predicted his committee will exceed its quota, completing the solicitation of teachers, school administrators and employees before October 15.

"We have contacted all private and public schools, and they are all giving their full cooperation," Mr. Ringler said. "In almost all schools, the personnel will be able to contribute through payroll deductions. We anticipate a great deal of success."

In the Industrial Division, meanwhile, Chairman Otto Grupp, 3rd, said his 25 solicitation teams have contacted all 92 industries and large businesses in Lower Bucks, in a drive for $380,000.

Good Evening!

Maglie did it.

Quite a show the old pro produced, too. But watch those bombers pull the trigger on Newcombe today.

Something of a show the candidates are stirring up, too.

Nixon in Philadelphia accuses Stevenson of destroying American standing in the world by his "shotgun" attacks on Ike's peace policies, and Adlai accuses Eisenhower of gross misstatements about the social security program.

Well, like they always say, this is the accusing season. Thank heavens only a month to go.

Hey, in a month we'll be sliding well into November. Then Thanksgiving, then Christmas. Amazing, how the world moves along.

A day of sprinkles, apparently.

We can't have everything, apparently, and yesterday's skies made the foliage a thing of loveliness to behold.

Now what we need is a solid week of perfect autumn skies beginning Saturday, October 13, when the big Bristol's 275th celebration starts.

It's going to be quite a party—all the way.

"Good morning, Doctor," said the first psychologist as he arrived at the hospital.

"Good morning, Doctor," echoed the second—then under his breath to himself, "I wonder what he meant by that!"

You can always tell an eight-year-old. But you usually have to tell him twice.

Watch your driving.

Levittown Girl Found In Alabama

Missing Since Monday, She Sought Job In Birmingham

DONNA DIEHM

A 15-year-old Levittown girl who had run away from her home early Monday morning was reportedly found today in Birmingham, Ala.

Donna Diehm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Diehm, 105 Junewood drive was located when she applied for employment at a firm in Birmingham and the manager became suspicious because she was under age.

As soon as verification is received, Mr. and Mrs. Diehm will motor down to pick up their daughter.

Donna left home between midnight and 6 o'clock Monday while her mother was sleeping and her father was out of town on business. Her mother reported that when she called Donna Monday morning for school, there was no answer from her room. Upon investigation, Mrs. Diehm discovered that Donna's bed was not used during the night.

She had only a few dollars in her wallet at the time. Clothes missing from her room are a short yellow coat, a navy blue suit, a blue and black check corduroy skirt, a brown plaid skirt, and a pair of khaki dungarees. She was wearing brown suede loafers and bobby socks.

Donna had told girl friends in tenth grade at Delhaas High School that she was going to hitch-hike on the turnpike.

There was a 13-state alarm out for her return.

Today's Weather

Cloudy with occasional rain today and tonight. Highest today 65 to 70. Lowest tonight 55 to 60. Tomorrow mostly fair with little temperature change.

Levittown Residential Plans Mapped

Area Captains For Intense Week Of Solicitation

Area captains in the Levittown residential drive for the Bucks County United Community Fund were named and plans made for an intensive week of solicitation last night at a meeting conducted by Mrs. W. David Price, 83 Kingwood lane, Levittown residential chairman.

Mrs. Price said the house-to-house drive will be conducted October 15 to 22. She commended her volunteer workers for their response to her call, and said she is confident the Levittown drive will be a success.

The group met at the home of Mrs. Clyde F. Brown, 46 Silver Birch lane, with Mrs. James S. Douglass, residential division chairman for the United Fund in Lower Bucks County. Also attending were Mrs. James W. Caulkett, Mrs. Thomas H. Smith, Mrs. Dennis McDonald, Mrs. Herbert Epstein and Mrs. John W. Zauner, all of Levittown.

Display at Pomeroy's Marking October 15 to 22 as United Fund week in Levittown, Mrs. Price said, will be a display at Pomeroy's department store, in the shopping center, depicting the 17 health, welfare and public service agencies of Bucks County supported by the fund.

Mrs. Price announced the appointment of three co-chairmen, each to supervise four sections of Levittown. They are:

Mrs. John Trakimas, 20 Deepgreen lane; captains, Kenwood. Mrs. John Thorpe, 40 Kingwood lane; Dogwood. Mrs. Dennis Mc-

Series Game Called Off

BROOKLYN — UP — Commissioner Ford C. Frick, after a conference with the umpires, announced today that the second game of the World Series between the Dodgers and Yankees had been postponed.

Frick made a detailed survey of the field and said that the playing conditions were satisfactory, but that he was concerned about the latest weather forecast. "In view of the forecast for continued rain, we decided it best to call the game," he said. "The weather report for later today is for heavy rain."

Today's game will be played tomorrow in Brooklyn, weather permitting, and the subsequent games in Yankee Stadium will be pushed back a day.

This is the first postponement of a World Series game since Sunday, Oct. 7, 1951, when the Yankees and the Giants were the World Series opponents.

Break for Dodgers The rainout was viewed as a break for the Dodgers inasmuch as it will permit 39-year-old Sal Maglie who won yesterday's opener, 6-3, to gain an extra day of rest.

Don Newcombe, today's scheduled starter, today pointed out when Alston nominated him yesterday, that he would like an extra day of rest also, after the heavy burden he carried during the late stages of the National League campaign.

Robert Baker, 320 Holly drive, Levittown, and Mrs. Laura Jendrick, Yardley, tellers in the Morrisville Bank, check over the books to see how much money the bandit got early today. The arrow points to sign saying the bank is insured for $10,000. (Courier and Times Photo)

Gov. Leader Cautious On Darcy Queries

Tells Reporters Very Little About Commuting Sentence

HARRISBURG — UP — Gov. George M. Leader today parried questions about the granting of clemency to three convicted Philadelphia slayers with the comment that "the Pardons Board has spoken."

The governor was asked specifically at his news conference his personal opinions in the controversial case involving David Darcy, 30; Harry Zeitz, 25, and Harold Foster, 30.

The governor, acting on recommendation of the state Pardons Board, commuted their death sentences to life imprisonment. They had been scheduled to die in the electric chair last Monday for the killing of a bystander in a Feasterville tavern holdup in Bucks County in 1947.

U. S. Sen. James H. Duff charged recently that the governor's action was a "horrible miscarriage of justice" and intimated a "shadowy and sinister influence" was behind the clemency.

"I can think of a lot of things to say but I won't risk being misinterpreted by saying them," the governor said. "I have a lot of things to say on the subject, but (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

Prices Go Up On Fuel Oil

Home deliveries of fuel oil in Levittown will be approximately $5 higher this season due to raises in price by major oil companies.

In the Levittown area, the retail price will average 14.8 cents per gallon, stated a spokesman for the Meenan Oil Company this morning. This is an increase of four mills per gallon.

Esso, Atlantic, Sun and other major oil companies increased prices to Eastern Seaboard wholesale dealers this week, on an average of two-tenths to five-tenths of a cent depending on the area.

Spokesmen for the companies noted the rise was made necessary by higher oil prices at the Gulf of Mexico, increased oil tanker rates, coupled with the fact that the prediction for the next few weeks is colder than normal weather. They declared that it has been about 60 degrees colder this season than last year.

Depositor Outwits Morrisville Gunman

Although she was ordered to the wall, then to the floor, in the hold-up of the Morrisville Shopping Center bank branch this morning, Mrs. Clifford Welker, 236 Altha street, Morrisville, kept possession of the $200 she held in her hand.

Mrs. Welker was in the bank with her three-year-old daughter,

Lynn Ann, when the hold-up man entered.

"I was signing a check," she said. "A man walked up to me. He walked away. Then he walked back and flashed a gun."

"He told us to get to the back of the bank," Mrs. Welker said, "and told the teller to hand the money over. He wanted paper money. He told us to lie down in back of the counter for five minutes or he'd blast our heads off. I didn't see him leave."

While lying on the floor, Mrs. Welker said, "I thought of the cruel things that do go on in this world, and of this fellow . . . ruining his life the way he was doing."

"I worried mostly about my little girl, but she never let out a peep. I don't think she knew what was going on."

Mrs. Welker had the $200 at the bank to pay a sewer bill. She later thrust the money into a coat pocket.

Two Tellers Held At Bay In Robbery

A nervous young man held five persons at gunpoint in the Morrisville Shopping Center branch of the Morrisville bank this morning and fled with $6093.

The FBI and State Police were called to the scene, while a description of the bandit was broadcast to police throughout Lower Bucks County, who kept a close check on all roads from Morrisville.

The youth entered the bank at about 9:16 a. m., soon after the bank had opened.

"This is a stickup, I mean business," he said, ordering three bank patrons to line up against the back wall.

Two Tellers

Two tellers were in the bank, Mrs. Laura Jendricks, of 186 S. Main street, Yardley, and Robert Baker, of 320 Holly drive, Levittown. The bandit ordered Mrs. Jendricks to put money from a cash drawer in a bag, took it, ordered the five persons to lie on the floor behind the screen front and left.

The bandit wore no mask. He was described as an 18 to 20-year-old white man, with light brown curly hair, wearing an orange-brown suede jacket. While waving the gun at the tellers he said he was nervous.

Before leaving with the money, the thug ordered the tellers and customers to stay on the floor five minutes, "or I'll blow your brains out."

Sees Bandit Flee

Soon after the bandit left, one of the patrons, Richard F. Taylor, of 97 Friendly lane, Levittown, who operates a camera store in the Shopping Center, rushed out and saw a car speed away from the parking lot.

The other two bank patrons were Mrs. Clifford Welker, 236 Altha street, Morrisville, and her two-year-old daughter, Lynn Ann. Bank President Herman L. Margerum estimated the stolen money at something less than $6100, as officials began to count the funds.

The money was all bills. The bandit did not disturb a bank vault. Police took Taylor and Mrs. Jendricks to the Morrisville police station to get their views of the holdup, then to Trenton police headquarters to examine "mug shots" of suspected persons.

Manager On Vacation

Margerum said the branch manager Harry H. Bunting, of 77 Fairway avenue, Morrisville, is on vacation this week. The acting manager, Robert C. Beadel, 514 Stockham avenue, Morrisville, was getting the mail at the time of the holdup, the president said. He said Carl Wunderlick, of 730 Crown street, a teller, was at his station on the floor below and was not aware of the holdup.

State Police later said two suspects were apprehended while traveling on Yardley road. However, after questioning, they both were released.

Insurance officials were to come to Morrisville this afternoon with a blank check to reimburse the loss.

Morrisville Bank officials said that an insurance company representative will come to the bank between 2:30 and 3 p.m. today to reimburse the bank losses.

Robber Seen

Two Philadelphia men associated with the S. S. Kresge store in the shopping center, Edward Wittekind, manager and Robert Gregory, window dresser, said they saw a "youngish man," apparently the bandit, "walking briskly" from the bank at the time of the holdup.

The Kresge store is next to the bank.

"We were standing in front of the store, unaware of what had happened," Wittekind said. "The (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1)

'Cold Cash, Warm Heart'---Confucius On SKIL-WORD

Borowsky Reports From Brooklyn: Fords (Whitey Too) Came Out Early

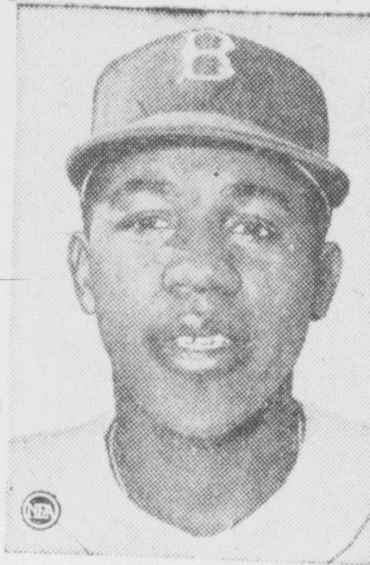

By BEN BOROWSKY
Courier and Times Sports Editor

BROOKLYN, N.Y. — The 1957 Ford came out yesterday and so did Whitey—in the fourth inning.

New York relief pitching held the Dodgers to only one run from the fourth inning on, but the damage had been done and Brooklyn was off to a quick one game lead in the 1956 World Series.

"It was a laugher," Duke Snider said in the clubhouse after the game. By that he meant it was like any ordinary game during the season with not too much tension.

Battle of Dons
Brooklyn manager Walter Alston will use Big Don New-

Junior Gilliam

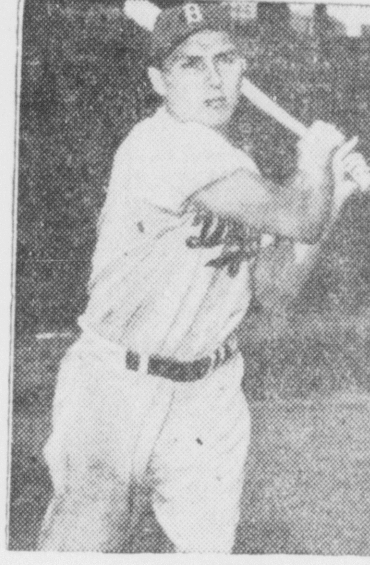

combe today against Casey Stengel's choice, Don Larsen. Newcombe finished with the best mark in baseball, 27-7. His earned run average was 3.06.

Larsen had a record of 11 victories against five defeats with an ERA of 3.27.

Newcombe has been tagged with the reputation that "he doesn't win the big ones." However, "Large Donald" may have broken that jinx last Sunday when he got credit for the victory in the Dodgers' pennant clincher.

In the 1955 series Larsen was charged with the defeat in one of the games as the Dodgers pounded him for five runs in four innings.

President Attends Game
It took the President and his

official party to make yesterday's game an exciting one. All of the 34,479 paying customers will long remember the President's visit to Ebbets Field.

The President arrived at the field at 12:30 and his four-car caravan came through the center field gates and circled the playing area. Mr. Eisenhower was met at home plate by Walter O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who introduced the Chief Executive to the players of both teams, baseball officials and the umpires.

The President's automobile, a special-made Lincoln with a plastic top, and the Cadillac

with running boards used by Secret Service agents came in for a lot of attention from the fans.

Summing Up
Summing up yesterday's game: The Dodgers looked good at the plate, in the field and on the mound. The Yankees? Well, Mantle belted a long one and Berra looked menacing up there.

Either the American League is the weaker circuit, as indicated by recent World Series and All-Star games, or Casey has a bunch of sleepers in his lineup that haven't "gotten up" yet.

Gil Hodges hit the mighty blow yesterday, a 3-run homer in the third inning to put the Dodgers in the lead, 5-2. Billy

Martin sent one into the left field seats to give the Yanks their third run.

Fielding Gem
The fielding gem of the day was supplied by Junior Gilliam, who robbed Moose Skowron of a base hit in the seventh inning.

The World Series scene shifts to Yankee Stadium tomorrow. Neither manager would commit himself to pitching choices for the third game until after today's contest.

It was the 50th World Series game for Brooklyn and the 25th played at Ebbets field. The Dodgers have a 12-13 record at home and have been able to win only six away games in World Series play.

Sal Maglie likes to pitch in Ebbets Field. With the Giants he posted an 11-3 mark at Brooklyn and this year with the Dodgers he won nine and lost two. Adding yesterday's victory Maglie is 21-5 at Ebbets.

said. "For he walked up to me twice before he pulled the gun."

"If you don't experience it," Mrs. Welker said of the holdup, "you don't know what it's like."

Barbers Rudy Giosa, 98 Dogwood drive, and James Perry, 195 Greenbrook drive, both of Levittown, usually can see what's going on at the Morrisville bank branch from the shop they operate in the shopping center.

Astonished
But this morning's fast holdup astonished them.

"My chair is next to the window and I can usually see who is going in and out of the bank," Giosa said, "but I missed it this morning. While cutting a customer's hair, I heard a radio announcer give the time at 9:15 a.m. Next thing I noticed, a Morrisville policeman was jiggling the door lock. I looked at the clock and it was 9:22."

"I was in the bank two minutes before the holdup," Perry said. "Mr. Taylor was going in as I left. He held the door for me."

Actress' Father Settles Dispute

The father of movie actress, Gene Tierney, and a Fairless Hills lumber dealer, came to an amicable agreement over their differences last night after two days of hurling charges and countercharges back and forth at each other.

Howard Sherwood Tierney, 62, of "Wee-Farm," Newtown R.D.2, agreed to drop perjury charges against Willard P. Graeber, 218 Lincoln highway, Fairless Hills, co-owner of the Graeber Lumber company, who in return will drop a charge of passing a worthless check he had lodged against Tierney.

Yesterday afternoon Tierney appeared at the office of JP Andrew H. Dillman, 207 Penn street, Newtown, and signed a complaint against Graeber on a charge of perjury resulting from a hearing the night before.

The round of firing legal shots began at a hearing before JP Earl B. Dougherty, of Edgely, Tuesday evening, following a dispute over a load of lumber delivered to Tierney's home. Tierney claimed that during delivery of a shipment of lumber, one of Graeber's truck drivers accidentally ran over one of Tierney's ladders and Graeber failed to deliver another shipment he had promised him last July. Tierney promised payment on a check of $182.90 because Graeber didn't want to deal with him on settling the damages, but instead on turning the matter over to his insurance company.

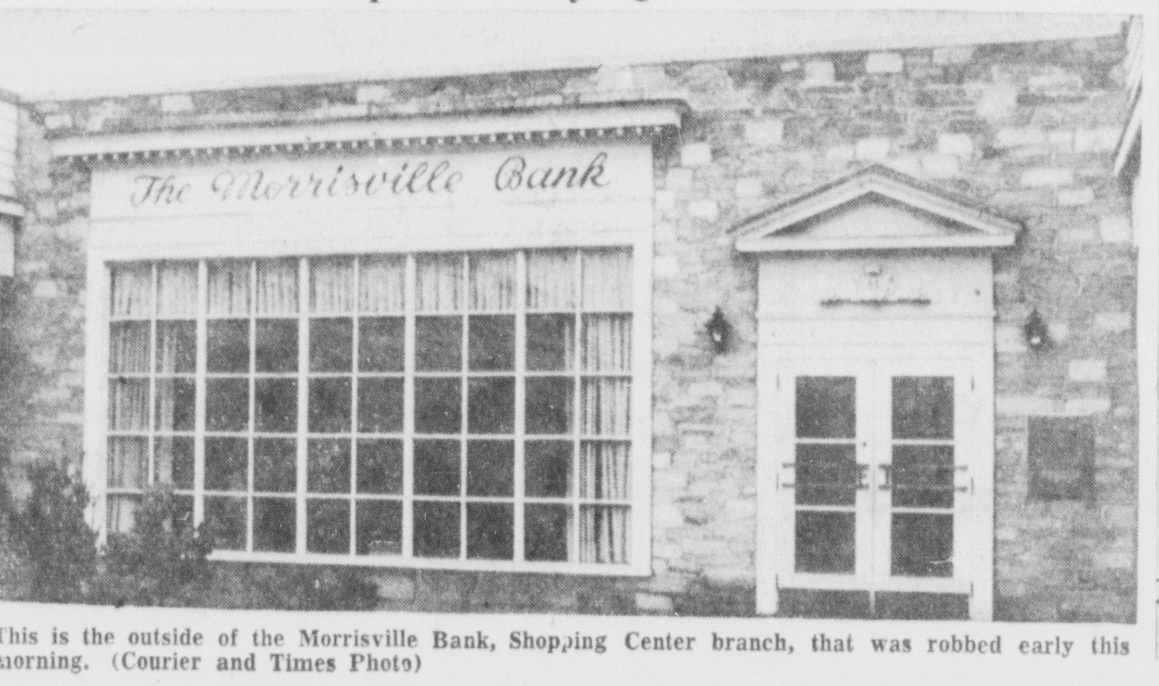

Tierney said he didn't consider Graeber had fulfilled the terms of his agreement on delivery.

On a warrant sworn out by Graeber before JP Dougherty, Tierney was held on $500 bail for action by the Bucks County Grand Jury.

Unable to raise the bail immediately, Tierney was committed to the Bristol Borough jail where he remained until 2 a.m. yesterday morning. At that time his wife, Helen, posted money for his bail.

At the hearing last night Tierney denounced the charge against him as "phony." He continued, "No one can throw tar and mud at me, and get away scot-free. No one in the world can hold me for passing a worthless check."

it would only add fuel to the fires."

The governor pointed out that the Pardons Board, "made up of people in whom I have the greatest confidence," outlined the reasons for their clemency recommendation over the weekend.

"I've accepted their unanimous recommendations and I am not going to make any further comment," he said.

On Duff's hint of influence in the case, the governor commented: "I don't believe there's a man in this room who believes influence was brought to bear."

The Pardons Board, in a detailed report, said that during numerous appeals before the courts many judges were convinced a legitimate and substantial question of constitutional rights was involved, and that under the circumstances executive clemency was required.

Harvest Festival Dance Scheduled

The Harvest Festival dance sponsored by the Temple Shalom Men's club will be held this Saturday night at the Temple.

Three top Broadway night club acts will round out a top-notch floor show.

Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. to the music of Eddie Gillespie and his orchestra.

Admission is $1.50 per person and the public is invited.

Township Rezones 136 Acres Of Land

Middletown Township Supervisors last night took another step towards the creation of an industrial zone in the eastern part of the township, which is criss-crossed by two railroads, when they re-zoned a 136-acre tract to M-2 heavy industry.

The tract, part of the Charles Henry Moon estate, lies between the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad and the Reading company. The land rezoned last night, from R-1 residential, lies just east of the point where the two railroads cross.

In granting the requested change Joseph O. Canby, chairman of the board, said the area was earmarked for industry. He pointed out that recently the supervisors had rezoned another tract on the other side of the Reading tracks for industry at the request of Eastern Coating company.

Best Use Of Land
The latest change, he said, would be in accordance with past actions and make it possible to make best use of the land, which has a low residential value because of the two railroads.

There were no objections to the change requested by two daughters of the late Mr. Moon.

Chairman Canby said he knew of no definite plans for industry to use the land, at the present time.

A surplus in the current budget was indicated when the board approved the transfer of $20,000 from the general account to a building fund.

Mr. Canby stated that the money would be invested and collect interest. He added that some of the money probably would have to be withdrawn next Spring to finance township operations until new taxes were received.

The supervisors also approved the hiring of Mrs. Betty Graham, of 39 Cobalt drive, as a school crossing guard for the Walter S. Miller school. The crossing guard was requested by the Middletown and Neshaminy Joint School Boards.

Angus T. Johnson, Township manager, reported that he had met with representatives of the township school board and of the Samuel Everitt School Parent-Teachers association on traffic conditions at the school.

He said school officials would try to obtain a right of way from Levitt and Sons, Inc., to construct a walk off the highway to the school. The township, he said, had been requested to post warning signs around the school.

Final plans for the foot bridge over Queen Anne's Creek between the Cobalt Ridge and Quincy Hollow sections of Levittown were presented. However, the supervisors took no action since they wanted to go over the drawings with representatives of the school board.

The cost of the bridge, which Canby said will run about $20,000, will be shared by the supervisors, school board and the County Commissioners.

The span will cross the creek at a point near Quest road, Quincy drive. The plans showed that the actual span will be 100 feet long and nine feet wide. In addition there will be long approaches.

The bridge will be built of pre-stressed, pre-cast concrete, instead of steel as originally planned.

Police Lodge Drunk Charge After Crash

James J. McCourt, 38, of New Rogers road, Bristol Township, was scheduled to face a hearing on drunken driving charges today as the result of an accident in Hulmeville last night.

McCourt was arrested by State Police from the Fairless Hills barracks after his automobile crashed into a car driven by Grace Holp, 38, of 221 Otter street, Bristol, on the Hulmeville bridge over the Neshaminy Creek.

McCourt was examined by Dr. William Suter, of 248 Trenton road, Fairless Hills, who pronounced the suspect under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Troopers Wilbur McClood and Eugene Corsi then took McCourt before JP Frederick A. Holly, Middletown township, who ordered him held overnight for a hearing at 11 a.m. today. McCourt was detained in the Falls Township jail.

Man Is Held In Tires Theft

A Philadelphia man stepped from the frying pan into the fire yesterday.

Released from prison in Philadelphia, William Morrison, 21, of 5533 Walton street, was picked up at his home by Bucks county detective Fred Kohler on a burglary charge.

Morrison was in the Philadelphia jail on a different charge and upon release was held in Bucks County prison on an attempted larceny charge.

Police reported that Morrison was being held in connection with a theft of automobile tires from the Reedman Motors, Route 1, Langhorne, in February.

No date has been set for the trial.

Building Collapse Cause Is Cited

JACKSON, Mich. — UP — A four-story building which collapsed and killed 10 workers, charged today that removal of the forms from freshly poured cement caused the disaster.

The plumber, George Bertr Jr. said "My father is in that building now because of it."

Berry said that forms were removed in three or four days from 10 1/2 inches of cement poured in the basement of the four-story, partially completed office building which collapsed and trapped the workers yesterday.

already begun in most of the firms, with corporate gift pledges obtained and canvassing of personnel underway, Mr. Grupp said. Directing solicitation in the industries in his division of under 100 employees are H. M. Caldwell and Charles Rittler.

"It looks as if we're in excellent shape," Mr. Grupp commented today. Progress reports will be submitted by the industrial teams at a luncheon Friday at the Keystone Hotel.

The Industrial Division is seeking to complete its drive by October 17, when the residential drive begins.

The total goal of the Bucks County United Fund Campaign is $600,000, of which $400,000 is the quota in Lower Bucks County's six divisions.

The United Fund supports 17 health, welfare and public service agencies in Bucks County, who face the greatest needs in their history.

Eight public school systems and two private schools are participating in Mr. Ringler's division drive. In the public schools, presidents of the teachers associations are directing the drives, with the cooperation of the district superintendents. Private school officials are assisting in a similar way.

Mr. Ringler is assistant principal of Charles H. Boehm Junior High School and president of the Pennsylvania School Education Association, a group formed of teachers and administrators.

In the Pennsylvania Schools system, two-thirds of the professional staff has pledged United Fund gifts under payroll deduction for a total donation of $3500. Mr. Ringler said. The donations are based on a day's pay each year, he said.

Other Pennsbury teachers and educators will be canvassed next week for cash pledges, the division chairman said. Meanwhile, the Pennsbury school bus drivers have responded almost 100 per cent.

Neshaminy is among the school districts providing payroll deductions for its employees this year, Mr. Ringler said, while the Bristol and Delhaas districts have already had the system for past United Fund campaigns.

Each school district chairman has delegated solicitors in each of the school buildings of his district, Mr. Ringler said. The school chairman are:

Pennsbury, Mr. Ringler; Bristol borough, Irvin Brambley; Delhaas, Guy Petrosello; Neshaminy, Robert Hassell; Morrisville, J. Wilbur Sauder.

Bensalem, John Whare; Centennial, Mrs. Ella Rhoads; Council Rock, Mrs. E. Mae Hartzel; George School, Richard E. McEely, Principal; Woods Schools, George K. Bennett, secretary and treasurer.

Curtin Blasts Darcy Ruling
Willard S. Curtin, Morrisville, Republican candidate for Congress, yesterday attacked the handling of the David Darcy case, and charged Gov. George M. Leader with reversing the decision of the courts after examining evidence for only two hours.

He said the commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment for Darcy and his companion killers was "an outrage against the people and the courts of Pennsylvania."

Curtin said that "someone had spent a tremendous amount of money on Darcy's behalf," but added he didn't know who.

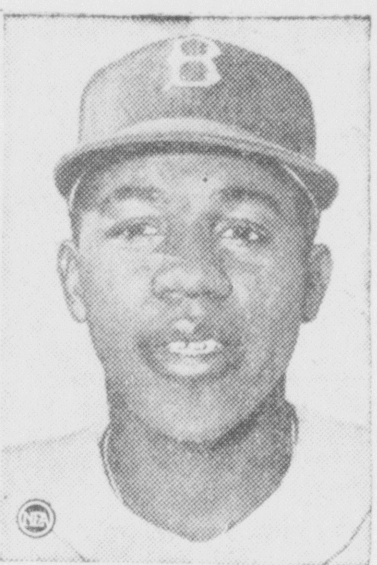

His attack followed one made yesterday by Bucks Republican chairman Fred Ziegler.

Darcy won countless slaves of execution following his conviction of killing William Kelly, of Trevoise, in the Feasterville tavern holdup of December 1947.

The seven nations which lead in air transport are the United States, Great Britain, France, Holland, Canada, India, and Mexico.
